

TAYLOR FERNLEY ELECTED TO THE PPF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

MAY 2017 – The nonprofit Philadelphia Police Foundation has elected G. A. Taylor Fernley to its Board of Directors; it was announced today by Maureen S. Rush, Board President and Vice President for Public Safety and Superintendent of Police at the University of Pennsylvania.

Fernley is President and CEO of Fernley & Fernley, Inc., of Philadelphia, and has been involved in the daily operations of the family business since 1973. Fernley & Fernley is a fifth generation family firm in the association management business representing 18 full service trade associations and professional societies in a wide variety of industries, business sectors and professions.

“Taylor Fernley will be a significant asset to our Foundation’s Board of Directors as we continue to fulfill our mission of support for the men and women of the Philadelphia Police Department,” Rush said.

ABOUT THE PHILADELPHIA POLICE FOUNDATION

The Philadelphia Police Foundation was established in 1999 by civic and corporate leaders in the Philadelphia region as “A Force Behind the Shield.” In the past two years, the PPF has raised and distributed more than $2 million for equipment, programs and training to the Philadelphia Police Department for important and immediate needs not contained in the city’s budget.

ABOUT FERNLEY & FERNLEY, INC.

Based in Philadelphia, Fernley & Fernley is recognized as the founder of the AMC Industry, established in 1886. Fernley has been a leader in non-profit management for 130 years, currently serving as management headquarters for 18 international, national, and regional trade associations and professional societies in a wide variety of industries and professions. Fernley & Fernley is charter accredited by the Association Management Company Institute.

# #